

JobTIPS

Key Points - Following Up By Email

When you contact a potential employer by email, here are the points to include:

1. First, thank them again for giving you the opportunity to interview.
2. Express your interest in the job.
3. Politely ask when they might make a decision about who they are going to hire for the position.
4. Thank them again for their time.