

JobTIPS

Key Points - Job Fairs

A job fair is an organized event where potential employers are looking to fill positions.

Job fairs allow potential employers to meet a high number of people in the same day.

Job fairs allow potential applicants (you) to learn about a number of different jobs and companies in the same day.

Some job fairs might have hundreds of applicants in attendance, so you might have to wait in line to talk to someone at a specific booth.