

Here is a list of possible words that you could type in when searching for a job using a large online search engine. These are ideas to type in when you are asked for a "Key Word." A key word is a general word that will guide you to jobs related to that key word.

For example, if you are interested in working in an accounting firm, a good key word to search for that type of job would be "accounting." The key word, "accounting", should guide you to many jobs that have to do with accounting.

Accounting	Hospitality or Hotel
Administrative/Clerical	Insurance
Agriculture/Forestry/Fishing	Internet services
Auditing	Laboratory technician
Automotive Repair or Maintenance	Landscaping
Public Relations	Manufacturing
Advertising	Maintenance or Repair
Automotive Sales or Repair	Medical sales
Banking	Nonprofit Organizations
Biotechnology or Pharmaceuticals	Nursing
Clothing or Textiles	Pharmacist or Pharmacist Technician
Computer software	Publishing or Editing
Computer services or Information Technology	Research assistant
Construction	Restaurant or Food services
Design	Retail
Drafting	Sales
Education or Teaching	Skilled labor or trades
Engineering	Tourism or Tour guide
Finance	Transportation
Government or Military	Veterinary Technician
Health care	